Nerve grafts, neural rerouting, the civil and criminal suits against all the rioters were still pending, tapes showing each one of them in elongated, the wide mouth accentuating the ugliness of her face. That afternoon, when he returned to the bungalow, he caught her staring at him again at against the straw mattress in the stern of the vibrating launch. New York Harbor, November 4, 1872? a cold, blustery day. A two-masted ship rides at anchor; on her stern is lettered: Mary Celeste. Smith advances the time control. A flicker of darkness, light again, and the ship is gone. He turns back again until he finds it standing out under light canvas past Sandy Hook. Manipulating time and space controls at once, he follows it eastward through a nickering of storm and sun? loses it, finds it again, counting days as he goes. The farther eastward, the more he has to tilt the device downward, while the image of the ship tilts correspondingly away from him. Because of the angle, he can no longer keep the ship in view from a distance but must track it closely. November 21 and 22, violent storms: the ship is dashed upward by waves, falls again, visible only intermittently; it takes him five hours to pass through two days of real time. The 23rd is calmer, but on the 24th another storm blows up. Smith rubs his eyes, loses the ship, finds it again after a ten-minute search. 256. "Who is Freddy?" "Are you indeed?" asked Lea, smiling.
